

- 4 Rays of light shine from his hand, a bright, shining light.
There is such power hiding in that hand.
- 5 The sickness went before him, and the destroyer followed behind him.^a
- 6 The LORD stood and judged the earth.
He looked at the people of all the nations, and they shook with fear.
For many years the mountains stood strong, but those mountains fell to pieces. Those old, old hills fell down. God has always been able to do that.
- 7 I saw that the cities of Cushan were in trouble and that the houses of Midian trembled with fear.
- 8 LORD, were you angry at the rivers? Were you angry at the streams? Were you angry at the sea? Were you angry when you rode your horses and chariots to victory?
- 9 Even then you showed your rainbow. It was proof of your agreement with the families of the earth.^b Selah
- And the dry land split the rivers.
- 10 The mountains saw you and shook. The water flowed off the land. The water from the sea made a loud noise as it lost its power over the land.
- 11 The sun and the moon lost their brightness. They stopped shining when they saw your bright flashes of lightning. That lightning was like spears and arrows shooting through the air.

^a3:5 This probably refers to the diseases and the Angel of Death that God sent against the Egyptians when God freed Israel from slavery.

^b3:9 rainbow ... earth See Gen. 9.

- 12 In anger you walked on the earth and punished the nations.
- 13 You came to save your people and to lead your chosen king^c to victory. You killed the leader in every evil family, from the least important person to the most important in the land.^d Selah
- 14 You used Moses' walking stick to stop the enemy soldiers. Those soldiers came like a powerful storm to fight against us. They thought they could defeat us easily, as robbing the poor in secret.
- 15 But you marched your horses through the deep water, stirring up the mud.
- 16 My whole body shook when I heard the story. My lips trembled. I felt weak deep down in my bones and stood there shaking. But I will wait patiently for destruction to come to those who attack us.

Always Rejoice in the Lord

- 17 Figs might not grow on the fig trees, and grapes might not grow on the vines. Olives might not grow on the olive trees, and food might not grow in the fields. There might not be any sheep in the pens or cattle in the barns.
- 18 But I will still be glad in the LORD and rejoice in God my savior.
- 19 The Lord God gives me my strength. He helps me run fast like a deer. He leads me safely on the mountains.

To the music director. On my stringed instruments.

^c3:13 chosen king Literally, "anointed one."

^d3:13 You killed ... in the land Literally, "You struck the head from the wicked house. From the foundation to the neck they were laid bare."

Zephaniah

1 ¹This is the message that the LORD gave to Zephaniah. He received this message during the time that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cush, who was the son of Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Hezekiah.

The Lord's Day for Judging the People

²The Lord says, "I will destroy everything on earth.^e ³I will destroy all the people and all the animals. I will destroy the birds in the air and the fish in the sea. I will destroy the evil people and everything that makes them sin. I will remove all people from the earth.” This is what the LORD said.

^e1:2 earth Or "the land" or "the country." Also in verse 18.

⁴“I will punish Judah and the people living in Jerusalem. I will remove from this place the last signs of Baal^a worship, the priests, and all the people who ⁵go up on their roofs to worship the stars.^a People will forget about those false priests. Some people say they worship me. They promised to worship me, but now they worship the false god Milcom.* So I will remove them from that place. ⁶Some people turned away from the LORD and stopped following me. They stopped asking the LORD for help, so I will remove them from that place.”

⁷Be silent before the Lord God, because the LORD’s day for judging the people is coming soon. The LORD has prepared his sacrifice, and he has told his invited guests to get ready.^b

⁸The LORD said, “On the LORD’s day of sacrifice, I will punish the king’s sons and other leaders. I will punish all the people wearing clothes from other countries. ⁹At that time I will punish all the people who jump over the threshold^c and those who fill their master’s house^d with lies and violence.”

¹⁰The LORD also said, “At that time people will be calling for help at Fish Gate in Jerusalem and mourning* in the new part of town. They will hear the sound of destruction in the hills around the city. ¹¹You people living in the lower part of town will cry, because all the traders and rich merchants* will be destroyed.

¹²“At that time I will take a lamp and search through Jerusalem. I will find all those who are satisfied to live their own way. They say, ‘The LORD does nothing. He does not help, and he does not hurt!’ I will find them, and I will punish them. ¹³Then others will take their wealth and destroy their houses. Those who built houses will not live in them, and those who planted vineyards will not drink the wine from the grapes.”

¹⁴The LORD’s special day for judging is coming soon! It is near and coming fast. People will hear very sad sounds on the LORD’s special day of judgment. Even strong soldiers will cry. ¹⁵The Lord will show his anger at that time. It will be a time of terrible troubles and a time of destruction. It will be a time

^a1:5 stars Literally, “army of heaven.” This might mean the stars and planets or the angels.

^b1:7 prepared ... get ready Literally, “prepared his sacrifice. He has made his called ones holy.” Here, this time of judgment is compared to a fellowship meal when priests offered a sacrifice to God and had the guests get ready for this special meal with God.

^c1:9 people wearing ... threshold This probably means the priests and people who worshiped foreign gods, such as Dagon, or people who copied their ways of worshipping. See 1 Sam. 5:5.

^d1:9 master’s house This means the temple where the people worshiped God or their false gods.

of darkness—a black, cloudy, and stormy day. ¹⁶It will be like wartime when people hear horns and trumpets in the defense towers and protected cities.

¹⁷The Lord said, “I will make life very hard on the people. They will walk around like the blind who don’t know where they are going. That will happen because they sinned against the LORD. Their blood will be spilled on the ground. Their dead bodies will lie like dung on the ground. ¹⁸Their gold and silver will not help them! At that time the Lord will become very upset and angry. The LORD will destroy the whole world!^e He will completely destroy everyone on earth!”

God Asks People to Change Their Lives

2¹Shameless people, change your lives ²before you become like a dry and dying flower. In the heat of day, a flower will wilt and die. You will be like that when the LORD shows his terrible anger. So change your lives before the LORD shows his anger against you! ³All you humble people, come to the LORD! Obey his laws. Learn to do good things. Learn to be humble. Maybe then you will be safe when the LORD shows his anger.

The Lord Will Punish Israel’s Neighbors

⁴No one will be left in Gaza. Ashkelon will be destroyed. By noon, the people will be forced to leave Ashdod. Ekron^f will be empty.^g ⁵You Cretans^h living by the sea, this message from the LORD is about you. Canaan,* land of the Philistines, you will be destroyed—no one will live there! ⁶Your land by the sea will become empty fields for shepherds and their sheep. ⁷Then the land will belong to the survivors* from Judah. The LORD their God will remember the people from Judah and restore their fortunes. Then they will let their sheep eat the grass in those fields. In the evenings they will lie down in the empty houses of Ashkelon.

⁸The LORD says, “I know what the people of Moab and Ammon did. They embarrassed my people. They took their land to make their own countries larger. ⁹So, as surely as I am alive, Moab and the people of Ammon will be destroyed like Sodom* and Gomorrah.* I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and I promise those countries will be destroyed completely forever. Their land will be overgrown with weeds. It will be like the land covered with salt by the Dead Sea. The survivors of my people will take that land and everything left in it.”

^e1:18 world Or “land” or “country.”

^f2:4 Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Ekron Philistine cities. In Hebrew, Zephaniah is making wordplays on the names of these cities.

^g2:4 empty In Hebrew this word is like the word meaning “Philistines.” Also in verse 6.

^h2:5 Cretans People from Crete. The Philistines came from that island.

¹⁰This will happen to the people of Moab and Ammon because they were so proud and cruel and humiliated the people of the LORD All-Powerful. ¹¹They will be afraid of the LORD, because he will destroy their gods. Then everyone in all the faraway lands will worship the Lord. ¹²People of Ethiopia, this even means you! The Lord's sword will kill your people. ¹³Then the Lord will turn north and punish Assyria. He will destroy Nineveh—that city will be like an empty, dry desert. ¹⁴Only sheep and wild animals will live in those ruins. Owls and crows will sit on the columns that are left standing. Their calls will be heard coming through the windows. Crows will sit on the doorsteps. Black birds^a will make their homes in those empty houses. ¹⁵Nineveh is so proud now. It is such a happy city. The people think they are safe. They think Nineveh is the greatest place in the world, but it will be destroyed! It will be an empty place where only wild animals go to rest. People who pass by will whistle and shake their heads when they see how badly the city was destroyed.

The Future of Jerusalem

3 ¹Jerusalem, your people fought against God. They hurt other people, and you have been stained with sin. ²They didn't listen to me or accept my teachings. Jerusalem didn't trust the LORD. Jerusalem didn't go to her God. ³Jerusalem's leaders are like roaring lions. Her judges* are like hungry wolves that come in the evening to attack the sheep—and in the morning nothing is left. ⁴Her prophets* are always making secret plans to get more and more. Her priests have treated holy* things as if they were not holy. They have done bad things to God's teachings. ⁵But God is still in that city, and he continues to be good. He does not do anything wrong. He continues to help his people. Morning after morning he makes good decisions for them. Not a day passes without his justice. He never gives a decision that is crooked or is something to be ashamed of.

⁶The Lord says, "I have destroyed whole nations and their defense towers. I destroyed their streets and now no one goes there anymore. Their cities are empty—no one lives there anymore. ⁷I tell you this so that you will learn a lesson. I want you to fear and respect me. If you do this, your home will not be destroyed, and I will not have to punish you the way I planned." But those evil people only wanted to do more of the same evil things they had already done!

⁸The LORD said, "So just wait! Wait for me to stand and judge you. I have the right to bring people from many nations and use them to punish you. I will use them to show my anger against you. I will use them to show how upset I am—and the whole country will be destroyed. ⁹Then I will change people from other nations so that they can speak the language clearly and call out the name of the LORD. They will all worship me together, shoulder to shoulder, as one people. ¹⁰People will come all the way from the other side of the river in Ethiopia. My scattered people will come to me. My worshipers will come and bring their gifts to me.

¹¹"Then, Jerusalem, you will no longer be ashamed of the wrong things your people do against me. That is because I will remove all the bad people from Jerusalem. I will take away all the proud people. There will not be any of them on my holy mountain.^b ¹²I will let only meek and humble people stay in my city, and they will trust the LORD's name. ¹³The survivors* of Israel will not do bad things or tell lies. They will not try to trick people with lies. They will be like sheep that eat and lie down in peace—and no one will bother them."

A Happy Song

- ¹⁴ Jerusalem, sing and be happy!
Israel, shout for joy!
Jerusalem, be happy and have fun!
- ¹⁵ The LORD stopped your punishment.
He destroyed your enemies' strong towers.
King of Israel, the LORD is with you.
You don't need to worry about anything bad happening.
- ¹⁶ At that time Jerusalem will be told,
"Be strong, don't be afraid!
- ¹⁷ The LORD your God is with you.
He is like a powerful soldier.
He will save you.
He will show how much he loves you and how happy he is with you.
He will laugh and be happy about you,
- ¹⁸ like people at a party.
I will take away your shame.
I will make them stop hurting you.^c
- ¹⁹ At that time I will punish those who hurt you.
I will save my hurt people and bring back those who were forced to leave.
I will give them praise and honor everywhere,
even in places where they suffered shame.
- ²⁰ At that time I will lead you back home.
I will bring your people back together.
I will cause people everywhere to honor and praise you.
You will see me bring back all the blessings you once had."
This is what the LORD said.

^b3:11 holy mountain Mount Zion, one of the mountains Jerusalem was built on.

^c3:18 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

^a2:14 Black birds Or "cedar beams."
