

The Obligation to Work

⁶Brothers and sisters, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ we tell you to stay away from any believer who refuses to work. People who refuse to work are not following the teaching that we gave them. ⁷You yourselves know that you should live like we do. We were not lazy when we were with you. ⁸We never accepted food from anyone without paying for it. We worked and worked so that we would not be a burden to any of you. We worked night and day. ⁹We had the right to ask you to help us. But we worked to take care of ourselves so that we would be an example for you to follow. ¹⁰When we were with you, we gave you this rule: “Whoever will not work should not be allowed to eat.”

¹¹We hear that some people in your group refuse to work. They are doing nothing except being busy in the lives of others. ¹²Our instruction to them is to stop bothering others, to start working and earn their own food. It is by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ that we are urging them to do this. ¹³Brothers and sisters, never get tired of doing good.

¹⁴If there are some there who refuse to do what we tell you in this letter, remember who they are. Don't associate with them. Then maybe they will feel ashamed. ¹⁵But don't treat them as enemies. Counsel them as fellow believers.*

Final Words

¹⁶We pray that the Lord of peace will give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all.

¹⁷Here's my greeting in my own handwriting—PAUL. I do this in all my letters to show they are from me. This is the way I write.

¹⁸The grace* of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1 Greetings from Paul, an apostle* of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus our hope.

²To Timothy, a true son to me in the faith we share.

Grace,* mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Warnings Against False Teachings

³When I went to Macedonia,* I asked you to stay in Ephesus. Some people there are teaching things that are not true, and I want you to tell them to stop. ⁴Tell them not to give their time to meaningless stories and to long lists of names to prove their family histories. Such things only cause arguments. They don't help God's work, which is done only by faith. ⁵My purpose in telling you to do this is to promote love—the kind of love shown by those whose thoughts are pure, who do what they know is right, and whose faith in God is real. ⁶But some have missed this key point in their teaching and have gone off in another direction. Now they talk about things that help no one. ⁷They want to be teachers of the law,^a but they don't know what they are talking about. They don't even understand the things they say they are sure of.

^a1:7 law Probably the Jewish law that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai. See Ex. 19 and 20. Also in verse 8.

⁸We know that the law is good if someone uses it right. ⁹We also know that the law is not made for those who do what is right. It is made for those who are against the law and refuse to follow it. The law is for sinners who are against God and all that is pleasing to him. It is for those who have no interest in spiritual things and for those who kill their fathers or mothers or anyone else. ¹⁰It is for those who commit sexual sins, homosexuals, those who sell slaves, those who tell lies, those who don't tell the truth under oath, and those who are against the true teaching of God. ¹¹That teaching is part of the Good News* that our blessed God gave me to tell. In it we see his glory.*

Thanks for God's Mercy

¹²I thank Christ Jesus our Lord because he trusted me and gave me this work of serving him. He gives me strength. ¹³In the past I insulted Christ. As a proud and violent man, I persecuted his people. But God gave me mercy because I did not know what I was doing. I did that before I became a believer. ¹⁴But our Lord gave me a full measure of his grace.* And with that grace came the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵Here is a true statement that should be accepted without question: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, and I am the worst of them. ¹⁶But I was given mercy so that in me Christ Jesus could show that he has patience without limit. Christ showed his patience with me, the worst of all sinners. He wanted me to be an example for those who would believe in him and have eternal life. ¹⁷Honor and glory* to the King who rules forever. He cannot be destroyed and cannot be seen. Honor and glory forever and ever to the only God. Amen.*

¹⁸Timothy, you are like a son to me. What I am telling you to do agrees with the prophecies^a that were told about you in the past. I want you to remember those prophecies and fight the good fight of faith. ¹⁹Continue to trust in God and do what you know is right. Some people have not done this, and their faith is now in ruins. ²⁰Hymenaeus and Alexander are men like that. I have given them to Satan* so that they will learn not to speak against God.

God Wants Us to Pray for Everyone

2First of all, I ask that you pray for all people. Ask God to bless them and give them what they need. And give thanks. ²You should pray for rulers and for all who have authority. Pray for these leaders so that we can live quiet and peaceful lives—lives full of devotion to God and respect for him. ³This is good and pleases God our Savior.

⁴God wants everyone to be saved and to fully understand the truth. ⁵There is only one God, and there is only one way that people can reach God. That way is through Christ Jesus, who as a man ⁶gave himself to pay for everyone to be free. This is the message that was given to us at just the right time. ⁷And I was chosen as an apostle* to tell people that message. (I am telling the truth. I am not lying.) I was chosen to teach those who are not Jews to believe and understand the truth.

Special Instructions for Men and Women

⁸I want the men everywhere to pray. Men who lift their hands in prayer must be devoted to God and pleasing to him. They must be men who keep themselves from getting angry and having arguments.

⁹And I want the women to make themselves attractive in the right way. Their clothes should be sensible and appropriate. They should not draw attention to themselves with fancy hairstyles or gold jewelry or pearls or expensive clothes. ¹⁰But they should make themselves attractive by the good things they do. That is more appropriate for women who say they are devoted to God.

¹¹A woman should learn while listening quietly and being completely willing to obey. ¹²I don't allow a woman to teach a man or tell him what to do. She must listen quietly, ¹³because Adam was made first. Eve was made later. ¹⁴Also, Adam was not the one who was tricked.^b It was the woman who was tricked and became a sinner. ¹⁵But women will be saved in their work of having children. They will be saved if they continue to live in faith, love, and holiness with sensible behavior.

Leaders in the Church

3¹It is a true statement that anyone whose goal is to serve as an elder^c has his heart set on a good work. ²An elder^d must be such a good man that no one can rightly criticize him. He must be faithful to his wife.^e He must have self-control and be wise. He must be respected by others. He must be ready to help people by welcoming them into his home. He must be a good teacher. ³He must not drink too much, and he must not be someone who likes to fight. He must be gentle and peaceful. He must not be someone who loves money. ⁴He must be a good leader of his own family. This means that his children obey him with full respect. ⁵If a man does not know how to lead his own family, he will not be able to take care of God's church.*

⁶An elder must not be a new believer. It might make him too proud of himself. Then he would be condemned for his pride the same as the devil was. ⁷An elder must also have the respect of people who are not part of the church. Then he will not be criticized by others and be caught in the devil's trap.

Special Servants

⁸In the same way, the men who are chosen to be special servants* must have the respect of others. They must not be men who say things they don't mean or who spend their time drinking too much. They must not be men who will do almost anything for money. ⁹They must follow the true faith that God has now made known to us and always do what they know is right. ¹⁰You should test them first. Then, if you find that they have done nothing wrong, they can be special servants.

¹¹In the same way, the women^f must have the respect of others. They must not be women who speak evil about other people. They must have self-control and be women who can be trusted in everything.

¹²The men who are special servants must be faithful in marriage.^g They must be good ^{b2:14} Adam was not ... tricked The devil tricked Eve, and Eve caused Adam to sin. See Gen. 3:1–13.

^{c3:1} whose ... elder Literally, "who aspires to supervision."

^{d3:2} elder Here, literally, "overseer." See "elders" in the Word List.

^{e3:2} faithful to his wife Literally, "a man of one woman."

^{f3:11} women Probably the women who serve as special servants (See Rom. 16:1). It could be translated, "their wives," meaning the wives of the special servants, although there is no word for "their" in the Greek text.

^{a1:18} prophecies Things that prophets said about Timothy's life before those things happened.

leaders of children and their own families. ¹³Those who do well as special servants are making an honorable place for themselves. And they will feel very sure of their faith in Christ Jesus.

The Secret of Our Life

¹⁴I hope I can come to you soon. But I am writing this to you now, ¹⁵so that, even if I cannot come soon, you will know how people should live in the family^a of God. That family is the church* of the living God. And God's church is the support and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶Without a doubt, the secret of our life of worship is great:

Christ^b was shown to us in human form;
the Spirit* proved that he was right;
he was seen by angels.
The message* about him was told to the nations;
people in the world believed in him;
he was taken up to heaven in glory.*

A Warning About False Teachers

4 ¹The Spirit* clearly says that in the last times some will turn away from what we believe. They will obey spirits that tell lies. And they will follow the teachings of demons.* ²Those teachings come through people who tell lies and trick others. These evil people cannot see what is right and what is wrong. It is like their conscience has been destroyed with a hot iron. ³They say that it is wrong to marry. And they say that there are some foods that people must not eat. But God made these foods, and those who believe and who understand the truth can eat them with thanks. ⁴Everything that God made is good. Nothing he made should be refused if it is accepted with thanks to him. ⁵Everything he created is made holy* by what he has said and by prayer.

Be a Good Servant of Christ Jesus

⁶Tell this to the brothers and sisters there. This will show that you are a good servant of Christ Jesus. You will show that you are made strong by the words of faith and good teaching you have followed. ⁷People tell silly stories that don't agree with God's truth. Don't follow what these stories teach. But teach yourself to be devoted to God. ⁸Training your body helps you in some ways. But devotion to God helps you in every way. It brings you blessings in this life and in the future life too. ⁹Here is a true statement that should be accepted without question: ¹⁰We hope in the living God, the Savior of all people. In particular, he is the Savior of all those who believe in him. This is why we work and struggle.

^a3:15 family Literally, "house." This could mean that God's people are like God's temple.

^b3:16 Christ Literally, "who." Some Greek copies have "God."

¹¹Command and teach these things. ¹²You are young, but don't let anyone treat you as if you are not important. Be an example to show the believers how they should live. Show them by what you say, by the way you live, by your love, by your faith, and by your pure life.

¹³Continue to read the Scriptures* to the people, encourage them, and teach them. Do this until I come. ¹⁴Remember to use the gift you have, which was given to you through a prophecy^c when the group of elders* laid their hands on* you. ¹⁵Continue to do these things. Give your life to doing them. Then everyone can see that your work is progressing. ¹⁶Be careful in your life and in your teaching. Continue to live and teach rightly. Then you will save yourself and those who listen to your teaching.

5 ¹Don't speak angrily to an older man. But talk to him as if he were your father. Treat the younger men like brothers. ²Treat the older women like mothers. And treat the younger women with respect like sisters.

Taking Care of Widows

³Take care of widows who really need help. ⁴But if a widow has children or grandchildren, the first thing they need to learn is this: to show their devotion to God by taking care of their own family. They will be repaying their parents, and this pleases God. ⁵A widow who really needs help is one who has been left all alone. She trusts God to take care of her. She prays all the time, night and day, and asks God for help. ⁶But the widow who uses her life to please herself is really dead while she is still living. ⁷Tell the believers there to take care of their family so that no one can say they are doing wrong. ⁸Everyone should take care of all their own people. Most important, they should take care of their own family. If they do not do that, then they do not accept what we believe. They are worse than someone who does not even believe in God.

⁹To be added to your list of widows, a woman must be 60 years old or older. She must have been faithful to her husband.^d ¹⁰She must be known for the good she has done: raising children, welcoming travelers into her home, serving the needs^e of God's people, helping those in trouble, and using her life to do all kinds of good.

¹¹But don't put younger widows on that list. When their strong physical needs pull them away from their commitment to Christ, they will want to marry again. ¹²Then they will be guilty of not doing what they first promised to do. ¹³Also, these younger widows begin to waste their time going from house to house. They also begin to gossip and try to run other people's lives. They say things they should not say. ¹⁴So I want the younger widows to marry, have children, and take care of their homes. If they do this, our enemy will not have any reason to criticize them. ¹⁵But some of the younger widows have already turned away to follow Satan.*

^c4:14 prophecy Something said about Timothy's life before that thing happened.

^d5:9 faithful to her husband Literally, "a woman of one man."

^e5:10 serving the needs Literally, "washing the feet," a social custom of the first century, because people wore open sandals on very dusty roads.

¹⁶If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, she^a should take care of them herself. Then the church* will not have that burden and will be able to care for the widows who have no one else to help them.

More About Elders and Other Matters

¹⁷The elders* who lead the church in a good way should receive double honor^b—in particular, those who do the work of counseling and teaching. ¹⁸As the Scriptures* say, “When a work animal is being used to separate grain, don't keep it from eating the grain.”^c And the Scriptures also say, “A worker should be given his pay.”^d

¹⁹Don't listen to someone who accuses an elder. You should listen to them only if there are two or three others who can say what the elder did wrong. ²⁰Tell those who sin that they are wrong. Do this in front of the whole church so that the others will have a warning.

²¹Before God and Jesus Christ and the chosen angels, I tell you to make these judgments without any prejudice. Treat every person the same.

²²Think carefully before you lay your hands on* anyone to make him an elder. Don't share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

²³Timothy, stop drinking only water, and drink a little wine. This will help your stomach, and you will not be sick so often.

²⁴The sins of some people are easy to see. Their sins show that they will be judged. But the sins of some others are seen only later. ²⁵It is the same with the good things people do. Some are easy to see. But even if they are not obvious now, none of them will stay hidden forever.

Special Instructions for Slaves

6 ¹All those who are slaves should show full respect to their masters. Then God's name and our teaching will not be criticized. ²Some slaves have masters who are believers, so they are brothers. Does this mean they should show their masters any less respect? No, they should serve them even better, because they are helping believers, people they should love.

This is what you must teach and tell everyone to do.

^a5:16 woman ... she Some Greek copies have “man or woman ... he/she.”

^b5:17 double honor Or “double pay.”

^c5:18 Quote from Deut. 25:4.

^d5:18 Quote from Lk. 10:7.

False Teaching and True Riches

³Some people will teach what is false and will not agree with the true teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. They will not accept the teaching that produces a life of devotion to God. ⁴They are proud of what they know, but they understand nothing. They are sick with a love for arguing and fighting about words. And that brings jealousy, quarrels, insults, and evil mistrust. ⁵They are always making trouble, because they are people whose thinking has been confused. They have lost their understanding of the truth. They think that devotion to God is a way to get rich.

⁶Devotion to God is, in fact, a way for people to be very rich, but only if it makes them satisfied with what they have. ⁷When we came into the world, we brought nothing. And when we die, we can take nothing out. ⁸So, if we have food and clothes, we will be satisfied with that. ⁹People who want to be rich bring temptations to themselves. They are caught in a trap. They begin to want many foolish things that will hurt them. These things ruin and destroy people. ¹⁰The love of money causes all kinds of evil. Some people have turned away from what we believe because they want to get more and more money. But they have caused themselves a lot of pain and sorrow.

Some Things to Remember

¹¹But you belong to God. So you should stay away from all those things. Always try to do what is right, to be devoted to God, and to have faith, love, patience, and gentleness. ¹²We have to fight to keep our faith. Try as hard as you can to win that fight. Take hold of eternal life. It is the life you were chosen to have when you confessed your faith in Jesus—that wonderful truth that you spoke so openly and that so many people heard. ¹³Before God and Christ Jesus I give you a command. Jesus is the one who confessed that same wonderful truth when he stood before Pontius Pilate.* And God is the one who gives life to everything. Now I tell you this: ¹⁴Do what you were commanded to do without fault or blame until the time when our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. ¹⁵God will make that happen at the right time. God is the blessed and only Ruler. He is the King of all kings and the Lord of all lords. ¹⁶God is the only one who never dies. He lives in light so bright that people cannot go near it. No one has ever seen him; no one is able to see him. All honor and power belong to him forever. Amen.*

¹⁷Give this command to those who are rich with the things of this world. Tell them not to be proud. Tell them to hope in God, not their money. Money cannot be trusted, but God takes care of us richly. He gives us everything to enjoy. ¹⁸Tell those who are rich to do good—to be rich in good works. And tell them they should be happy to give and ready to share. ¹⁹By doing this, they will be saving up a treasure for themselves. And that treasure will be a strong foundation on which their future life will be built. They will be able to have the life that is true life.

²⁰Timothy, God has trusted you with many things. Keep these things safe. Stay away from people who talk about useless things that are not from God and who argue against you with a “knowledge” that is not knowledge at all. ²¹Some people who claim to have that “knowledge” have gone completely away from what we believe.

God’s grace* be with you all.

2 Timothy

1 ¹Greetings from Paul, an apostle* of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because God wanted me to be. God sent me to tell people about the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus.

²To Timothy, a dear son to me.

Grace,* mercy, and peace to you from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

Thanksgiving and Encouragement

³I always remember you in my prayers day and night. And in these prayers I thank God for you. He is the God my ancestors* served, and I have always served him with a clear conscience. ⁴I remember that you cried for me. I want very much to see you so that I can be filled with joy. ⁵I remember your true faith. That kind of faith first belonged to your grandmother Lois and to your mother Eunice. I know you now have that same faith. ⁶That is why I want you to remember the gift God gave you. God gave you that gift when I laid my hands on* you. Now I want you to use that gift and let it grow more and more, like a small flame grows into a fire. ⁷The Spirit* God gave us does not make us afraid. His Spirit is a source of power and love and self-control.

⁸So don’t be ashamed to tell people about our Lord Jesus. And don’t be ashamed of me—I am in prison for the Lord. But suffer with me for the Good News.* God gives us the strength to do that.

⁹God saved us and chose us to be his holy* people, but not because of anything we ourselves did. God saved us and made us his people because that was what he wanted and because of his grace.* That grace was given to us through Christ Jesus before time began. ¹⁰And now it has been shown to us in the coming of our Savior Christ Jesus. He destroyed death and showed us the way to have life. Yes, through the Good News Jesus showed us the way to have life that cannot be destroyed.

¹¹I was chosen to tell people that message as an apostle* and teacher. ¹²And I suffer now because of that work. But I am not ashamed. I know the one I have believed, and I am sure that he is able to protect what he has trusted me with until that Day.*

¹³What you heard me teach is an example of what you should teach. Follow that model of right teaching with the faith and love we have in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴This teaching is a treasure that you have been trusted with. Protect it with the help of the Holy Spirit, who lives inside us.

¹⁵You know that everyone in Asia* has left me. Even Phygelus and Hermogenes have left me. ¹⁶I pray that the Lord will show mercy to the family of Onesiphorus. Many times Onesiphorus encouraged me. He was not ashamed that I was in prison. ¹⁷No, he was not ashamed. When he came to Rome, he looked and looked for me until he found me. ¹⁸I pray that the Lord Jesus will make sure Onesiphorus receives mercy from the Lord God on that Day. You know how many ways this brother helped me in Ephesus.

A Loyal Soldier of Christ Jesus

2 ¹Timothy, you are a son to me. Be strong in the grace* that we have because we belong to Christ Jesus. ²What you have heard me teach publicly you should teach to others. Share these teachings with people you can trust. Then they will be able to teach others these same things. ³As a good soldier of Christ Jesus, accept your share of the troubles we have. ⁴A soldier wants to please his commanding officer, so he does not spend any time on activities that are not a part of his duty. ⁵Athletes in a race must obey all the rules to win. ⁶The farmer who works hard deserves the first part of the harvest. ⁷Think about what I am saying. The Lord will help you understand it all.

⁸Remember Jesus Christ. He is from the family of David.* After Jesus died, he was raised from death. This is the Good News* that I tell people. ⁹And because I tell that message, I am suffering. I am even bound with chains like someone who has really done wrong. But God’s message is not bound. ¹⁰So I patiently accept all these troubles. I do this to help the
