

¹⁰Brothers and sisters, follow the example of the prophets* who spoke for the Lord. They suffered many bad things, but they were patient. ¹¹And we say that those who accepted their troubles with patience now have God's blessing. You have heard about Job's patience.^a You know that after all his troubles, the Lord helped him. This shows that the Lord is full of mercy and is kind.

Be Careful What You Say

¹²My brothers and sisters, it is very important that you not use an oath when you make a promise. Don't use the name of heaven, earth, or anything else to prove what you say. When you mean yes, say only "yes." When you mean no, say only "no." Do this so that you will not be judged guilty.

The Power of Prayer

¹³Are you having troubles? You should pray. Are you happy? You should sing. ¹⁴Are you sick? Ask the elders* of the church* to come and rub oil on you^b in the name of the Lord and pray for you. ¹⁵If such a prayer is offered in faith, it will heal anyone who is sick. The Lord will heal them. And if they have sinned, he will forgive them.

¹⁶So always tell each other the wrong things you have done. Then pray for each other. Do this so that God can heal you. Anyone who lives the way God wants can pray, and great things will happen. ¹⁷Elijah* was a person just like us. He prayed that it would not rain. And it did not rain on the land for three and a half years! ¹⁸Then Elijah prayed that it would rain. And the rain came down from the sky, and the land grew crops again.

Helping People When They Sin

¹⁹My brothers and sisters, if anyone wanders away from the truth and someone helps that person come back, ²⁰remember this: Anyone who brings a sinner back from the wrong way will save that person from eternal death and cause many sins to be forgiven.

^a5:11 Job's patience See the book of Job in the Old Testament.

^b5:14 rub oil on you Oil was used like medicine.

1 Peter

1 ¹Greetings from Peter, an apostle* of Jesus Christ.

To God's chosen people who are away from their homes—people scattered all over the areas of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia. ²God planned long ago to choose you and to make you his holy people,* which is the Spirit's* work. God wanted you to obey him and to be made clean by the blood sacrifice^c of Jesus Christ.

I pray that you will enjoy more and more of God's grace* and peace.

A Living Hope

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has great mercy, and because of his mercy he gave us a new life. This new life brings us a living hope through Jesus Christ's resurrection from death. ⁴Now we wait to receive the blessings God has for his children. These blessings are kept for you in heaven. They cannot be ruined or be destroyed or lose their beauty.

⁵God's power protects you through your faith, and it keeps you safe until your salvation comes. That salvation is ready to be given to you at the end of time. ⁶I know the thought of that is exciting, even if you must suffer through different kinds of troubles for a short time now. ⁷These troubles test your faith and prove that it is pure. And such faith is worth more than gold. Gold can be proved to be pure by fire, but gold will ruin. When your faith is proven to be pure, the result will be praise and glory* and honor when Jesus Christ comes.

⁸You have not seen Christ, but still you love him. You can't see him now, but you believe in him. You are filled with a wonderful and heavenly joy that cannot be explained. ⁹Your faith has a goal, and you are reaching that goal—your salvation.

¹⁰The prophets* studied carefully and tried to learn about this salvation. They spoke about the grace* that was coming to you.

¹¹The Spirit* of Christ was in those prophets. And the Spirit was telling about the sufferings

^c1:2 made clean ... sacrifice Or "sprinkled with the blood," which probably compares the beginning of the new agreement by the blood sacrifice of Christ (Mk. 14:24) with Moses' sprinkling the blood of animal sacrifices on the people of Israel to seal the agreement God made with them (Ex. 24:3–8). See also Heb. 9:15–26.

that would happen to Christ and about the glory that would come after those sufferings. The prophets tried to learn about what the Spirit was showing them—when it would happen and what the world would be like at that time.

¹²It was made clear to them that their service was not for themselves. They were serving you when they told about the things you have now heard. You heard them from those who told you the Good News* with the help of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even the angels would like very much to know more about these things you were told.

A Call to Holy Living

¹³So prepare your minds for service. With complete self-control put all your hope in the grace* that will be yours when Jesus Christ comes. ¹⁴In the past you did not have the understanding you have now, so you did the evil things you wanted to do. But now you are children of God, so you should obey him and not live the way you did before. ¹⁵Be holy* in everything you do, just as God is holy. He is the one who chose you. ¹⁶In the Scriptures* God says, “Be holy, because I am holy.”^a ¹⁷You pray to God and call him Father, but he will judge everyone the same way—by what they do. So while you are visiting here on earth, you should live with respect for God. ¹⁸You know that in the past the way you were living was useless. It was a way of life you learned from those who lived before you. But you were saved from that way of living. You were bought, but not with things that ruin like gold or silver. ¹⁹You were bought with the precious blood of Christ’s death. He was a pure and perfect sacrificial Lamb.* ²⁰Christ was chosen before the world was made, but he was shown to the world in these last times for you. ²¹You believe in God through Christ. God is the one who raised him from death and gave honor to him. So your faith and your hope are in God.

²²You have made yourselves pure by obeying the truth. Now you can have true love for your brothers and sisters. So love each other deeply—with all your heart. ²³You have been born again. This new life did not come from something that dies. It came from something that cannot die. You were born again through God’s life-giving message* that lasts forever. ²⁴The Scriptures say,

“Our lives are like the grass of spring, and any glory* we enjoy is like the beauty of a wildflower.

The grass dries up and dies,
and the flower falls to the ground.

²⁵ But the word of the Lord lasts forever.”

Isaiah 40:6–8

^a1:16 Quote from Lev. 11:44, 45; 19:2; 20:7.

And that word is the Good News* that was told to you.

The Living Stone and the Holy Nation

2 So then, stop doing anything to hurt others. Don’t lie anymore, and stop trying to fool people. Don’t be jealous or say bad things about others. ²Like newborn babies hungry for milk, you should want the pure teaching that feeds your spirit. With it you can grow up and be saved. ³You have already tasted the goodness of the Lord.

⁴The Lord Jesus is the living stone.^b The people of the world decided that they did not want this stone. But he is the one God chose as one of great value. So come to him. ⁵You also are like living stones, and God is using you to build a spiritual house.^c You are to serve God in this house as holy* priests, offering him spiritual sacrifices* that he will accept because of Jesus Christ. ⁶The Scriptures* say,

“Look, I have chosen a cornerstone* of great value,
and I put that stone in Zion.*

Anyone who trusts in him will never be disappointed.” Isaiah 28:16

⁷So, that stone means honor for you who believe. But for those who don’t believe he is

“the stone that the builders refused to accept,
which became the most important
stone.” Psalms 118:22

⁸For them he is also

“a stone that makes people stumble, a rock that makes people fall.” Isaiah 8:14

People stumble because they don’t obey what God says. This is what God planned to happen to those people.

⁹But you are his chosen people, the King’s priests. You are a holy nation, people who belong to God. He chose you to tell about the wonderful things he has done. He brought you out of the darkness of sin into his wonderful light.

¹⁰ In the past you were not a special people,
but now you are God’s people.
Once you had not received mercy,
but now God has given you his mercy.^d

Live for God

¹¹Dear friends, you are like visitors and strangers in this world. So I beg you to keep ^b2:4 stone The most important stone in God’s spiritual temple or house (his people).

^c2:5 house God’s house—the place where God’s people worship him. Here, it means that believers are the spiritual building where God lives.

^d2:10 In the past ... his mercy See Hos. 2:23.

your lives free from the evil things you want to do, those desires that fight against your true selves. ¹²People who don't believe are living all around you. They may say that you are doing wrong. So live such good lives that they will see the good you do, and they will give glory* to God on the day he comes.

Obey Every Human Authority

¹³Be willing to serve the people who have authority^a in this world. Do this for the Lord. Obey the king, the highest authority. ¹⁴And obey the leaders who are sent by the king. They are sent to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do good. ¹⁵When you do good, you stop ignorant people from saying foolish things about you. This is what God wants. ¹⁶Live like free people, but don't use your freedom as an excuse to do evil. Live as those who are serving God. ¹⁷Show respect for all people. Love all the brothers and sisters of God's family. Respect God, and honor the king.

The Example of Christ's Suffering

¹⁸Slaves, be willing to serve your masters. Do this with all respect. You should obey the masters who are good and kind, and you should obey the masters who are bad. ¹⁹One of you might have to suffer even when you have done nothing wrong. If you think of God and bear the pain, this pleases God. ²⁰But if you are punished for doing wrong, there is no reason to praise you for bearing that punishment. But if you suffer for doing good and you are patient, this pleases God. ²¹This is what you were chosen to do. Christ gave you an example to follow. He suffered for you. So you should do the same as he did:

²²"He never sinned,
and he never told a lie." Isaiah 53:9

²³People insulted him, but he did not insult them back. He suffered, but he did not threaten anyone. No, he let God take care of him. God is the one who judges rightly. ²⁴Christ carried our sins in his body on the cross. He did this so that we would stop living for sin and live for what is right. By his wounds you were healed. ²⁵You were like sheep that went the wrong way. But now you have come back to the Shepherd and Protector of your lives.

Wives and Husbands

3 ¹In the same way, you wives should be willing to serve your husbands. Then, even those who have refused to accept God's teaching will be persuaded to believe because of the way you live. You will not need to say anything. ²Your husbands will see the pure lives that you live with respect for God. ³It is not fancy hair, gold jewelry, or fine clothes that should make you beautiful. ⁴No, your beauty should come from inside you—the beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit. That beauty will never disappear. It is worth very much to God.

^a2:13 people ... authority Literally, "every human creation," meaning rulers, governors, presidents, or other government leaders.

⁵It was the same with the holy* women who lived long ago and followed God. They made themselves beautiful in that same way. They were willing to serve their husbands. ⁶I am talking about women like Sarah. She obeyed Abraham,* her husband, and called him her master. And you women are true children of Sarah if you always do what is right and are not afraid.

⁷In the same way, you husbands should live with your wives in an understanding way, since they are weaker than you. You should show them respect, because God gives them the same blessing he gives you—the grace* of true life. Do this so that nothing will stop your prayers from being heard.

Suffering for Doing Right

⁸So all of you should live together in peace. Try to understand each other. Love each other like brothers and sisters. Be kind and humble. ⁹Don't do wrong to anyone to pay them back for doing wrong to you. Or don't insult anyone to pay them back for insulting you. But ask God to bless them. Do this because you yourselves were chosen to receive a blessing. ¹⁰The Scriptures* say,

"If you want to enjoy true life
and have only good days,
then avoid saying anything hurtful, and never let a lie come out of your mouth.

- ¹¹ Stop doing what is wrong, and do good.
Look for peace, and do all you can to help people live peacefully.
- ¹² The Lord watches over those who do what is right,
and he listens to their prayers.
But he is against those who do evil."

Psalms 34:12–16

¹³If you are always trying to do good, no one can really harm you. ¹⁴But you may suffer for doing right. If that happens, you have God's blessing. "Don't be afraid of the people who make you suffer; don't be worried."^b ¹⁵But keep the Lord Christ holy in your hearts. Always be ready to answer everyone who asks you to explain about the hope you have. ¹⁶But answer them in a gentle way with respect. Keep your conscience clear. Then people will see the good way you live as followers of Christ, and those who say bad things about you will be ashamed of what they said.

¹⁷It is better to suffer for doing good than ^b3:14 Quote from Isa. 8:12.

for doing wrong. Yes, it is better if that is what God wants.

¹⁸ Christ himself suffered when he died for you,
and with that one death he paid for your sins.

He was not guilty,
but he died for people who are guilty.
He did this to bring all of you to God.
In his physical form he was killed,
but he was made alive by the Spirit.^a ¹⁹And by the Spirit he went and preached to the spirits in prison. ²⁰Those were the spirits who refused to obey God long ago in the time of Noah. God was waiting patiently for people while Noah was building the big boat. And only a few—eight in all—were saved in the boat through the floodwater. ²¹And that water is like baptism, which now saves you. Baptism is not the washing of dirt from the body. It is asking God for a clean conscience. It saves you because Jesus Christ was raised from death. ²²Now he has gone into heaven. He is at God's right side and rules over angels, authorities, and powers.

Changed Lives

4 ¹Christ suffered while he was in his body. So you should strengthen yourselves with the same kind of thinking Christ had. The one who accepts suffering in this life has clearly decided to stop sinning. ²Strengthen yourselves so that you will live your lives here on earth doing what God wants, not the evil things that people want to do. ³In the past you wasted too much time doing what those who don't know God like to do. You were living immoral lives, doing the evil things you wanted to do. You were always getting drunk, having wild drinking parties, and doing shameful things in your worship of idols.

⁴Now those "friends" think it is strange that you no longer join them in all the wild and wasteful things they do. And so they say bad things about you. ⁵But they will have to face God to explain what they have done. He is the one who will soon judge everyone—those who are still living and those who have died. ⁶Some were told the Good News* before they died. They were criticized by others in their life here on earth. But it was God's plan that they hear the Good News so that they could have a new life through the Spirit.*^b

Be Good Managers of God's Gifts

⁷The time is near when all things will end. So keep your minds clear, and control yourselves. This will help you in your prayers. ⁸Most important of all, love each other deeply, because love makes you willing to forgive many sins. ⁹Open your homes to each other and share your food without complaining. ¹⁰God has shown you his grace* in many different ways. So be good servants and use whatever gift he has given you in a way that will best serve each other. ¹¹If your gift is speaking, your words should be like words from God. If your gift is serving, you should serve with the strength that God gives. Then it is God who will be praised in everything through Jesus Christ. Power and glory* belong to him forever and ever. Amen.*

Suffering as a Follower of Christ

¹²My friends, don't be surprised at the painful things that you are now suffering, which are testing your faith. Don't think that something strange is happening to you. ¹³But you should be happy that you are sharing in Christ's sufferings. You will be happy and full of joy when Christ shows his glory.* ¹⁴When people say bad things to you because you follow Christ, consider it a blessing. When that happens, it shows that God's Spirit, the Spirit of glory, is with you. ¹⁵You may suffer, but don't let it be because you murder, steal, make trouble, or try to control other people's lives. ¹⁶But if you suffer because you are a "Christ-follower," don't be ashamed. You should praise God for that name. ¹⁷It is time for judging to begin. That judging will begin with God's family. If it begins with us, then what will happen to those who don't accept the Good News* of God?

¹⁸"If it is hard for even a good person to be saved, what will happen to the one who is against God and full of sin?"

Proverbs 11:31 (Greek version)

¹⁹So if God wants you to suffer, you should trust your lives to him. He is the one who made you, and you can trust him. So continue to do good.

The Flock of God

5 ¹Now I have something to say to the elders* in your group. I am also an elder. I myself have seen Christ's sufferings. And I will share in the glory* that will be shown to us. I beg you to ²take care of the group of people you are responsible for. They are God's flock.^c Watch over that flock because you want to, not because you are forced to do it. That is how God wants it. Do it because you are happy to serve, not because you want money. ³Don't be like a ruler over those you are responsible for. But be good examples to them. ⁴Then when Christ the Ruling Shepherd comes, you will get a crown*—one that ^a3:18 by the Spirit Or "in the spirit." Also in verse 19.

^b4:6 through the Spirit Or "in the spirit," meaning in the spiritual or heavenly realm.

^c5:2 God's flock God's people. They are like a flock of sheep that need to be cared for.

will be glorious and never lose its beauty.

⁵Young people, I have something to say to you too. You should accept the authority of the elders. You should all have a humble attitude in dealing with each other.

“God is against the proud,
but he is kind to the humble.”

Proverbs 3:34

⁶So be humble under God’s powerful hand. Then he will lift you up when the right time comes. ⁷Give all your worries to him, because he cares for you.

⁸Control yourselves and be careful! The devil is your enemy, and he goes around like a roaring lion looking for someone to attack and eat. ⁹Refuse to follow the devil. Stand strong in your faith. You know that your brothers and sisters all over the world are having the same sufferings that you have.

¹⁰Yes, you will suffer for a short time. But after that, God will make everything right.

He will make you strong. He will support you and keep you from falling. He is the God who gives all grace. He chose you to share in his glory in Christ. That glory will continue forever. ¹¹All power is his forever. Amen.*

Final Greetings

¹²Silas will bring this letter to you. I know that he is a faithful brother in Christ. I wrote this short letter to encourage you. I wanted to tell you that this is the true grace* of God. Stand strong in that grace.

¹³The church in Babylon^a sends you greetings. They were chosen just as you were. Mark, my son in Christ, also sends his greetings. ¹⁴Give each other a special greeting^b of love when you meet.

Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

^a5:13 The church in Babylon Literally, “She in Babylon.”

^b5:14 special greeting Literally, “kiss.”

2 Peter

1 ¹Greetings from Simon Peter, a servant and apostle* of Jesus Christ.

To all of you who share in the same valuable faith that we have. This faith was given to us because our God and Savior Jesus Christ always does what is good and right.

²Grace* and peace be given to you more and more, because now you know God and Jesus our Lord.

God Has Given Us Everything We Need

³Jesus has the power of God. And his power has given us everything we need to live a life devoted to God. We have these things because we know him. Jesus chose us by his glory* and goodness, ⁴through which he also gave us the very great and rich gifts that he promised us. With these gifts you can share in being like God. And so you will escape the ruin that comes to people in the world because of the evil things they want.

⁵Because you have these blessings, do all you can to add to your life these things: to your faith add goodness; to your goodness add knowledge; ⁶to your knowledge add self-control; to your self-control add patience; to your patience add devotion to God; ⁷to your devotion add kindness toward your brothers and sisters in Christ, and to this kindness add love. ⁸If all these things are in you and growing, you will never fail to be useful to God.

You will produce the kind of fruit that should come from your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹But those who don’t grow in these blessings are blind. They cannot see clearly what they have. They have forgotten that they were cleansed from their past sins.

¹⁰My brothers and sisters, God called you and chose you to be his. Do your best to live in a way that shows you really are God’s called and chosen people. If you do all this, you will never fall. ¹¹And you will be given a very great welcome into the kingdom* of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, a kingdom that never ends.

¹²You already know these things. You are very strong in the truth you have. But I am always going to help you remember them.

¹³While I am still living here on earth, I think it is right for me to remind you of them. ¹⁴I know that I must soon leave this body. Our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me that. ¹⁵I will try my best to make sure you remember these things even after I am gone.

We Saw Christ’s Glory

¹⁶We told you about the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. We told you about his coming. The things we told you were not just clever stories that people invented. No, we saw the greatness of Jesus with our own eyes. ¹⁷Jesus heard the voice of the great and glorious God.
