WITCHCRAFT

LOVE, GIVING, CHOOSING OBEDIENCE AND FREEDOM FOR GOD SO LOVED US, THAT HE GAVE US HIS SON TO FOLLOW

God made us so, that we spiritually look like Him. Therefore, just like us, He has a strong need to be loved. King David of Israel understood this so very well when he wrote in Psalm 8 about how amazing it is that God still lets us attempt to manage His creation, even though Adam rejected Him so much by disobeying his Father. And we inherited from him this lack of love for God. David expresses himself in amazement that God is still caring about us and visiting with us, even though we made ourselves His enemies. In verse two David then makes it clear that God gets His strength from babies and nursing infants because we became His enemies, just like satan. Strength comes to God and all of us through love; we cannot live without it. Therefore, He instructs us in Deuteronomy 6:5 “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your strength.”

We humans just do not have much ability of our own; it is given to us by spirits; godly or demonic spirits. In myself I am not very good at most things; but I can do all things through Jesus Christ if I ask Him. Then He will love to work through me.

For good reasons God has however given you and me great abilities for some things that we can do very well of ourselves, like:

Choosing to love God as our Father with all our heart, or not,

Choosing to listen to God by listening to, or reading, His Word, if we want to,

Choosing to obey God, or not,

Choosing to ask God to clean our heart, if we want to,

Choosing to love His children, or not,

Choosing to help needy people who are also His children, or not,

Choosing to ask Him to work through us, and let Him do it then, or not Choosing to ask satan to have his demons work through us.

If our heavenly Father had not given us such abilities, we could not love Him; we would just be machines. But He created us for His own happiness and strength. And if we have a good relationship with God, He wants us to even call Him our Father. And as a Father who is happy with His children, He will give us anything we ask Him for if it is good for us. The apostle Paul, who was very close with his Father God, could then say: "I can do everything through God who gives me the strength."

QUESTION TO DISCUSS:

Why does God give us abilities to choose to love and obey Him?

ANSWER:

So that we could give Him our love. He needs love just as much as we need it.

He created us for His happiness, His glory.

QUESTIONS TO DISCUSS:

1. Do you agree with me that you have few abilities independent of spirits?
2. Can you think of other things you can do well besides obeying, worshipping, being thankful, holding Father God's hand as you listen or talk to Him?
3. Is obeying God actually an easy thing to do, or do we even need to ask God to help us with that?
4. Is your life maybe actually a choice of serving God or satan.
5. Can I lay down my own life easily? Or do I need God's help for that?
6. Can I easily forgive someone from the bottom of my heart, or does that also need God's help?
7. Is it easier for my spirit to control my mind, or for my flesh to control my soul?

CONTROL, DISOBEDIENCE, REBELLION

This lesson talks about humans seeking help or power from spirits. Such spirits are our heavenly Father, Jesus and their angels on one side, or demonic angelic beings ruled by God's enemy, the devil, on the other side. Whose help do you want to seek?

We read in Isaiah 14:12-15 that satan attempted to take over God's power and control of the heavenly places:

"How are you fallen from heaven oh Lucifer, son of the morning; how are you cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations, because you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the throne of the congregation, on the farthest sides of the North; I will rise above the heights of the clouds, and I will be like the Most High.' Yet, you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the lowest depths of the Pit."

After Father God had created Adam and Eve, and put Adam in charge of His creation to represent Him in the material world, he was not alone on Earth; satan was already there, having been cast out of God's presence for rebellion. Yes, Lucifer, satan, the devil, was already there, but without God given responsibilities; they were given to Adam. God is infinitely more powerful than the devil and so, Adam was God's only caretaker with his God-given abilities. Satan was under God's feet, and under Adam's feet. Satan had only one option available to him: hide where he was and try to deceive "King Adam", or his wife Eve, into believing lies. Adam could not easily be deceived, but Eve was easier to lie to. And after Satan got Eve to believe him and she disobeyed God, not all was lost yet; Adam could have done what his heavenly Father wanted him to do: keep on obeying God and eat not from the tree's forbidden fruit, and clean his wife with truth and asking his Father to forgive her. He instead chose to love Eve more than God, and so he ate the fruit that she gave him; he loved himself more than his God. And when Adam so disobeyed God he could no longer represent God anymore. Satan grabbed the opportunity and became here on Earth a criminal, an outlaw, intimidating, killing and destroying. And he still does so today through demons, witchdoctors, witches, warlocks, mediums, etc. All of creation was now under a curse of demonic influence and control, because there was no one anymore to adequately manage and protect God's earth.

QUESTIONS TO DISCUSS:

1. Do you notice from the bible reading that God seems to be grieving Lucifer's rebellion?
2. Did God not lose a beautiful high-ranking archangel who used to do God's will?
3. Does God hold Adam responsible for sin in the world, or Eve who ate first of the fruit?
4. Does God hold the husband responsible for your family or your wife?

God held the man responsible because God had instructed him, and had created Eve from the side of Adam's body to be his helper. As children of our Creator Father God, He wants us to obey HIM, and seek our help from HIM, not from God's enemy satan, the devil.

WITCHDOCTORS, SANGOMAS, SET FREE,
JESUS HEALS THE BROKENHEARTED & PROCLAIMS
FREEDOM TO CAPTIVES

Here are some ways a person may become a witchdoctor:

- A man had become enticed to serve demons because he got some supernatural powers. He was pleased with and proud of these powers, thinking that they were his own, and he sought more power. In the beginning he was maybe not even aware of the true source, demons. But he chose to disobey God by seeking such supernatural powers, and he ended up like in a spider's web, feeling that it was almost impossible to escape.
- Other people just want to have power over others and want to become a witchdoctor, and willfully seek the help of dark forces; demons can give much power as one makes promises to them, and thus to satan. But once a person makes a covenant with satan, the devil shows his real face, his hate; he threatens and torments a witchdoctor if he does not obey him and never gives him peace. At night witchdoctors cannot sleep peacefully but are in constant torment as satan tries to force them into more obedience to him.

I have in recent years helped several witchdoctors, Sangomas, reject satan after having accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord. When these witchdoctors started coming to me for help, I found that they were too afraid to denounce and disobey satan's demons. The demons intimidated them intensely, and the sangomas' lives became even more tormented yet. When I explained to each one what I wanted them to pray, they left out of fear, but would come back after a few weeks. When their torment finally became unbearable, they took courage and chose to follow Jesus and tell the devil so with their own voice, in Jesus' name. That set them free from satan's bondage. For the first time in memory, they could sleep a peaceful night's rest, just as Jesus said in Luke 4:18-19:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted; to proclaim freedom to captives, to open prison doors to those who are bound, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”

QUESTIONS TO DISCUSS:

1. If you discover that you have a supernatural ability, should you try to improve on it?
2. Is it wise to seek professional training for witchdoctor, even if you can make money that way?
3. Can you share with each other how you feel about ancestors?
4. What do you do with a very sick child if there is no medical doctor? Ask your heavenly Father to heal it.
5. If you keep bitterness in your heart toward someone, will that hurt that person or you?

6. Do you experience torment at night, and would you like help?
7. Are you willing to ask God right now to clean your heart from demons?

I remember two prisoners: likely they were witch-doctors; they had prayed a prayer to be set free from bitterness toward an enemy. And God did answer them. And when they chose to be baptized, and came out of the water, both were by an invisible hand pushed back under water, and were drowning, but others pulled them out and put them on dry ground where they still lay slashing with arms and legs for a while, until peace came over them. Two days later they came together to their prison chaplain saying: "We did not know that life could be so pleasant and peaceful."

Our God is so very faithful and eager to bless us beyond our wildest dreams. He will do everything for us to set us free from evil spirits, especially when we choose to seek Him with ALL our heart. In Psalm 91 God Himself speaks to us in a manner that I have only experienced in recent years, but I now know that He will do it for any of you if you just seek Him with ALL your heart. Here it is from

Psalm 91:14-16

"Because he loves Me with all his heart, I will deliver him; I will lift him up on high, because he knows Me. He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him. And with long life I will satisfy him and show him My salvation."

There are other causes for demon possession.

- Many people believe that their ancestors are still around, and they are afraid of their jealousy. But this is another lie of satan; ancestors are asleep after they die, and will wake up on the day when God comes to judge the living and the dead; they will be made alive then for judgment. If you believe that your ancestors are still around, you will be afraid of them and try to keep them happy. If you think that you worship your ancestors like that, you worship in fact satan and his demons, and they torment you to make you serve them. Stop worshipping ancestors and worship your God, and alone Him. Jesus never torments, tries to force you, because that is not love; Father God and Jesus give only peace.
- A mother brings her child to a witchdoctor as she fears for its life, and wants her baby healed. The Sangoma then makes a blood covenant between a demon and the child by drawing some blood through two small incisions in the skin. The little child is bodily healed, but such covenants are enforced by the devil, and the child, as it grows up, will be haunted and tormented by that demon for the rest of its life, or until he or she meets Jesus. The mother, not knowing better, had turned to the wrong helper; a witchdoctor is never a solution for our problems. Many people have this kind of covenants with demons in their lives, made by a parent for them, or even made by themselves. You can get rid of such covenants by inviting Jesus in your heart, and promising to love and obey Him from now on as your Savior, your Lord and King, and ask Jesus to cast out the demon. Jesus' powers are far greater than those of Satan himself, and the demon has to go.

“Our help is in the Name of the Lord Who has made the Heavens and the Earth.”

- A person has bitterly judged someone for hurting him, and keeps hating that person instead of forgiving him while God loves every human being. God leaves a hateful and bitter spirit of you who hates anyone (thus creating a broken heart), because He loves the person who hurt you as much as He loves you; you have also hurt people at times! He or she ends up in torment by demons as described in a parable by Jesus in Matthew 18:21-35:

Peter came to Jesus and asked Him: “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him, up to seven times?” Jesus answered him: “I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven. Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made. The servant fell down before him, saying: ‘Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.’ Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, and said: 'Pay me what you owe!' And that fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him: 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.' But he would not, and threw him into prison until he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were grieved when they saw what he had done and told their master all that had happened. Then his master, after he had called him, said to him: 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' And his master was angry, and delivered him to the tormenters until he should pay all that was due to him. So My heavenly Father will also do to you if each of you does not forgive his brother his trespasses from his heart."

Please, ask Jesus to forgive you of your wrong doings and invite Him in your heart; let Him be your King and always obey Him from now on. Will you repeat after me? "Father God, I now understand that I have not known You well, and sought You and Your Son Jesus Christ. Thank You for having come now to me. I now know that I have often disobeyed Your will, and done what was wrong. Thank you that Jesus died on the cross also for my sins. Will You please forgive me, because Jesus died also for my sins. Will You and Jesus come and live in my heart and cast satan and his demons out of my heart. I ask you in Jesus' name, Amen."

After you have prayed now, tell it to satan loud out:
"Satan, I am now the property of Jesus Christ who bought me with His blood; you have no rights to me anymore, and I will not obey you ever anymore. LEAVE me now in Jesus' name!"

God warns us in 1 Peter 5:8-10:

"Be sober and vigilant, because your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may destroy. Resist him steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brothers in the world."

The apostle John wrote in 1 John 3:8b-9

"For this purpose, the Son of God came to us, that He might destroy the works of the devil. Whoever has been born of God does no sin anymore, for God's seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because his spirit has been born of God."

MORAL LAWS GOD REQUIRES US TO KEEP

When God led His people Israel out of Egypt to freedom in the land that He had promised to Abraham, He gave them His laws at Mount Sinai; we will read now some laws that are necessary for us to keep.

Leviticus 19:31:

“Don’t put value in mediums and familiar spirits; do not seek them, to be defiled by them; I am the Lord your God.”

Such mediums do nothing else but use demonic powers for their trade of calling up familiar spirits. God warns us to have nothing to do with Satan and his demons.

And in Leviticus 20:2-4 we read

“Whoever of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who gives any of his descendants to Moloch (sacrificing them to Moloch), he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones. I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from his people, because he has given some of his descendants to Moloch, to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name.”

Moloch, a god of the nations that are around Israel, demanded human sacrifice, but he was actually none other than a representation of satan himself. This was demon worship! Satan demands human sacrifice, and even in Europe and America satanic people-groups exist today that make human sacrifices to satan. Satan will always intimidate more, and destroy more, as long as we allow ourselves to be deceived, and give in to his intimidations and torment.

In Leviticus 20:6-7 God actually cuts off people who seek help from satan, whether in the form of a fake god, or by seeking help from a Sangoma, a medium or a spiritist, because our God wants us to trust Him and seek our help from Him alone:

“I will set My face against the person who turns to mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, and cut him off from his people. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am the Lord your God. And you shall keep My statutes, and perform them: I am the Lord who makes you holy.”

We must seek our help from our heavenly Father; David wrote that in Psalms 124:8:

“Had it not been the Lord who was on our side when men rose up against us, they would have swallowed us alive when their anger was kindled against us; the waters would have engulfed us; the stream would have swept over our soul; the raging waters would have swept over our soul.” Blessed be the Lord, who has not given us to be torn by their teeth. Our soul has escaped as a bird out of the snare of the trapper; the snare is broken, and we have escaped. Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.”

We find in this same place in Leviticus all kinds of other terribly bad sins described, and then the penalty for seeking help from mediums is mentioned again. Here are a few examples:

Leviticus 20:14

“If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.”

Listen to Leviticus 20:15: “If a man mates with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.”

And in Leviticus 16: “If a woman approaches any animal and mates with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood is upon them.”

And in Leviticus 20:27: “A man or a woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them.”

Please, be careful to not become involved with witchcraft or sexual sins; run away from them if you want a growing relationship with your God. The Seer Samuel said to a disobedient King Saul: “Disobedience is like the sin of witchcraft”. If we are disobedient to God, strange, unexplainable things, can happen.

King Saul, under God’s direction through the prophet Samuel, had been cleaning the country from mediums who could predict the future, and who said that they could let you talk with the dead, etc. But Saul’s army is defeated by the Philistines and he is fleeing for his life, and seeks a medium to talk to the dead prophet Samuel. Can we force God to talk to us?

Listen to 1 Samuel 28:11-19

Then the medium said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up the prophet Samuel for me." When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying: "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!" The king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What did you see?" And the woman said: "I saw a spirit rising up from the earth." Saul asked her: "What is his form?" "An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle." And Saul knew it was Samuel and he stooped with his face to the ground. Samuel said to Saul: "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered: "I am deeply distressed; because the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me. Therefore, I have called you, so that you may reveal to me what I should do.” Then Samuel said: “Why do you ask me, seeing the Lord has departed from you and has become your enemy? The Lord has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David. Because you did not obey the voice of the Lord or execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore the Lord has done this thing to you this day. Moreover, the Lord will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me.”

What a tragic waste of life for not honoring God, but Satan instead. And what a tragedy when a person listens to a medium; does one then hear God? Or does one then hear a spirit from the wrong, the dark side? We just cannot know and should therefore not try, and take the risk of becoming deceived.

1 Chronicles 10:13-14 says:

“So, Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the Lord, because he did not keep the word of the Lord, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance instead of asking of the Lord; therefore, He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.”

When a mother goes to a witchdoctor to get her baby healed, she is in despair, but turns to the wrong helper: “Our help is in the Name of the Lord Who has made the Heavens and the Earth.” The sangoma makes some small cuts for a blood covenant with demons and in return such evil spirits may heal that baby, but haunt and torment it then for the rest of its life; a witchdoctor is never a solution for our problems. Many people have this kind of covenants with demons in their lives, made by a parent for them, or even made by themselves. You can break such covenants by inviting Jesus in your heart, and promising to obey Him from now on always as your Lord and King. After Jesus had died for our sins, obeying His Father, and then rising from the dead, He said in Matthew 28:18:

“ALL AUTHORITY has been given to Me in heaven and on earth, and look, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

QUESTIONS TO DISCUSS:

1. Did you hear this well? Jesus has received ALL authority, OK? ALL authority from His Father. Satan has lost the battle and cannot touch anyone who is the property of Jesus, bought by Jesus with His blood, if he stays close to Jesus and His will for us.
2. Do you have on your body this kind of two small parallel scars?
3. Do you know why they are there?
4. Do you realize that they represent demonic covenants, whether you know them or not?
5. Are you now willing to ask God to clean your heart from those demonic covenants?

Please ask Jesus to forgive your sins and invite Him in your heart; let Him be your King and obey Him always. After you have done so tell it to Satan, and say it loud: "Satan, I am now the property of Jesus Christ who bought me with His blood, you have no rights to me anymore, and I will not obey you ever anymore. LEAVE me now in Jesus' name!"

CLOSING REMARKS

After Adam and Eve had fallen into sin God immediately promised a solution through "the Seed of Eve". Then He promised it through a covenant with Noah, a covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and he promised protection for His very own people Israel through a covenant with them, given through Moses. Just like God's covenant with Adam was conditional on obedience to Him, so His covenant with Israel was based on their obedience. All others in creation were outside of God's protection until they put themselves under the protection of the God of Israel like many Egyptians did during the exodus from Egypt. Obeying God is absolutely necessary for a relationship with Him, and to obtain His protection. And all these covenants God had made with men, were fulfilled when Jesus became God's perfect sacrifice, the Holy Lamb of God, taking the punishment for our disobedience to God by dying for us on a cross, and so dismantling satan's power grip on all who put their trust in Him, and place themselves under Jesus' protection through repentance, forgiveness of sins and through obedience. In Jesus there is now on Earth again a true representative of our heavenly Father. After Jesus rose from the grave God gave Him all authority in Heaven and on Earth, just like God in the beginning gave it to Adam. Then Jesus delegated that authority to us when He went to Heaven to His Father, when He said: "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on Earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all peoples, baptizing them in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Thus, all of us who are redeemed are again fully protected against satan's destructive powers; we are again protected by the very unlimited delegated power and authority that flows to us from our God through Jesus. Satan, here on earth, is again under Adam's feet, that is, under the feet of the last "Adam", our Jesus Christ, and through Him under the feet of God's children, you and me. Jesus in us is unlimited more powerful than satan and his host of fallen angels.

Listen to God's Word in Romans 8:33-39

"Who shall bring a charge against God's chosen? God justifies. Who is he who condemns? Christ died, and furthermore is also risen from death, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?"

Tribulation? Or distress? Or persecution? Or famine? Or nakedness? Or peril? Or sword? As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter." Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loves us, because I am persuaded that neither death nor life, angels, or principalities, or powers, or things present or things to come, or height or depth, or any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus, our Lord."

No satanic power through demons and their Sangomas, can touch you and me because Jesus Christ's children are shielded by our God's unlimited power and love.

I close this study with two scriptures to encourage you.

Hebrews 11:6 says:

"Without faith it is impossible to please God, for he who comes to Him must believe that He is, and that He is a Rewarder of those who seek Him with all their heart."

I speak these truths as I am continually confronted with people who call themselves Christians, and I am sure that many of them are, yet they are daily living with fear of witchdoctors. Witchdoctors have controlled people for too long, and now they still do it, often as presidents of nations, as dictators, or as pastors. I sense that some of these dictators have strong witchcraft powers that are real, and that such powers can only be broken through much prayer and intercession.

A non-Christian or one who does not seek God with all of his heart, is still fully exposed to the power of the devil and has reasons to be afraid without our Lord's protection. Many Christians live a defeated life because they are still afraid of witchdoctors; they still have difficulty trusting our powerful Lord God and His desire to protect us.

And this lack of trust in God is an equally big problem in the Western world. Africans live very close to the real, powerful demonic world, and threats if they do not do what the witchdoctor tells them. He can threaten in many ways; including through the threat of death of a person or of an entire family, and do it, and no cause of death can be found. In Europe and America satanism is also very alive because some people love the supernatural powers it gives. Intellectual minds and knowledge make people too proud and arrogant to consider the reality of a spirit world around and within them; such a spiritual reality is perceived to be somewhere else and disconnected from their daily lives. Satan likes either way; fearfully believing and obeying satan, or not believing that a real devil and demonic world exist.

Let's close this booklet on an encouraging note from the Apostle Paul in 1Corinthians 13:

“Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have no love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have no love, it profits me nothing.

Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish. For we know in part and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is partial will be done away with.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

And now abide faith, hope and love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” (NKJV)

WITCHCRAFT

Witchdoctors operate all over the sub-Sahara continent. They are people with an extremely wounded heart that have dominated by demons, so much that these demons begin forcing them to do what they want, and if they do not obey the demons, they become severely tormented by them, forcing them to obey.

But the witchdoctors can easily become free from these demonic oppressions as they ask Jesus Christ to forgive them of their sins, and come to live in their hearts. It is that easy; they will be forgiven of their sins, and Jesus will love to come in their heart, and that through the blood of the Lamb of God, Jesus, who was sacrificed while carrying our sins, and so making it possible for us to enter into an intimate relationship with God, Allah, the Almighty One.

Witchcraft was written as a missionary tool for Sub-Sahara African peoples. It has been exceptionally effective in audio format since 2012 in helping people, Naturalists, Muslims and Christians alike, to come close to their Allah, God.

The writer Kees Hoek grew up in The Netherlands, moving in 1969 with his wife Els and four children to the USA to gain an American business experience. As they joined Neighborhood Church in Bellevue WA, they came so much closer to their Father God and Jesus Christ that they decided to remain and became US citizens. As a professional engineer he started a commercial HVAC & Refrigeration company that he operated for 32 years, selling it after his wife died in 1998. It was then that God called him in amazing ways to become a father to many young men who grew up without an attentive father of their own.

Kees says: "Living among African peoples since 2003 has been of immeasurable value to me in understanding the Healing of Wounds of the Heart."
